

Transcript 文字稿:

Is this what springs to mind when you think of North Korea?

It's an unorthodox cultural celebration for a country better known for parading its missile might.

These images from North Korean TV suggest Kim Jong-un may want to carve out a different image to his predecessors.

They've eased restrictions on some Western brands and these Disney characters.

It comes as officials pay their respects to the country's former leaders.

Vocabulary 词汇:

springs to mind 马上想到的

unorthodox 很不寻常的

might 强大的实力

eased 解禁, 放松

pay their respects 凭吊

中文文字稿:

你会马上联想到这是朝鲜吗?

对于一向擅长展示其导弹实力的朝鲜来说, 这可是件不寻常的文化欢庆活动。

来自朝鲜电视台的图片显示金正恩可能想创造一个与前国家领导人不同的形象。

该国放松了对一些西方名牌还有这些迪斯尼角色的限制。

该国政府官员凭吊前国家领导人。

Watch this video online: Disney in North Korea? 朝鲜引入迪斯尼?

<http://bbc.in/NsSsQ9>

Exercise 练习:

以下练习中的语句全部选自于 BBC 其他网页。

请从下面的词汇表里选择答案来完成句子。

注意：你可能需要改变单词的时态来完成句子。

springs to mind / unorthodox / might / eased / pay their respects

1. China's securities regulator has sought _____ entry rules for foreign investors, the latest step in its bid to open up the financial market.
2. Mr Orban has alarmed Hungary's foreign partners with his _____ economic policies, particularly a public battle with his own central bank.
3. The dark red berets of the Ethiopian army are back in Baidoa. At the airstrip, there was plenty of military _____ on display: hulking tanks, heavy artillery and dozens of alert troops.
4. Writing on the council's website, the mayor of Lisburn, William Leathem, said: "For those of us who have worked or served in our own professions for many years, we understand the enormity of time that 60 years' service brings and we wish to express our thanks and _____ to Her Majesty.
5. Mention Canada, and images of mounties, maple syrup or possibly Montreal are most likely to _____. But the country is sitting on the second-largest oil reserves in the world.

Answers 答案:

1. China's securities regulator has sought to ease entry rules for foreign investors, the latest step in its bid to open up the financial market.

2. Mr Orban has alarmed Hungary's foreign partners with his unorthodox economic policies, particularly a public battle with his own central bank.

3. The dark red berets of the Ethiopian army are back in Baidoa. At the airstrip, there was plenty of military might on display: hulking tanks, heavy artillery and dozens of alert troops.

4. Writing on the council's website, the mayor of Lisburn, William Leathem, said: "For those of us who have worked or served in our own professions for many years, we understand the enormity of time that 60 years' service brings and we wish to express our thanks and pay our respects to Her Majesty.

5. Mention Canada, and images of mounties, maple syrup or possibly Montreal are most likely to spring to mind. But the country is sitting on the second-largest oil reserves in the world.